

John Foreman

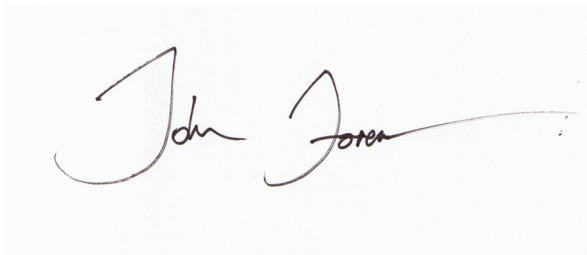

September 26, 2011

To Whom It May Concern:

I have worked with John Clark on many occasions. He is an excellent percussionist who brings enthusiasm, attention to detail and professionalism to every performance.

On many occasions he has also supplied his own percussion equipment. His instruments always sound fantastic. He always brings a wonderful array of sounds and colours, and always ensures that his equipment is of the highest quality. He has a great skill for finding the right sounds to suit the style of music being performed or recorded.

Best wishes

A handwritten signature in black ink on a light background. The signature reads "John Foreman" in a cursive, flowing style. The "J" is large and loops back, and the "Foreman" is written in a similar cursive script.

John Foreman